Fahed Sabagh
Professor Sabagh works in the Digital Media Department at Murdoch University, Dubai

April 26, 2009

Have you ever embarrassed yourself in front of your students?
I started giving a lesson that I already gave the week before – and the students didn't say anything for 15 minutes.

What's the most common misconception students have about you?
That I'm just an older student.

How do you respond to the saying: "Those who can, do. Those who can't, teach?"
People can't do without those who teach.

What's the craziest thing you've ever done?
I'm marrying a girl who spilled coffee on me when we first met.

What musicians were you into when you were in college?
Sheryl Crow, Natalie Imbruglia and Alanis Morissette.

Which celebrity did you have a crush on in college?
Charlize Theron.

What's the worst thing a student has ever done in your class?
When faced with the message "Press any key to continue," she started looking for the "any" key on the keyboard.

If you could tell your students anything, what would it be?
Read, read and then read some more.

How would you like to be remembered after you die?
As a good father and a loving husband.